Press the Menu Button to go to Account Settings. Enter in the pinball serial number (from the Physical Game Cards in your game box) and press Save. You can also find this information if you access the USB port for your game (you must have a USB cable connected to your computer). Once you have found the pinball serial number, go to the Website www.mypinball.com and register for a free account. Once you are logged in, press the "Pinball Arcade" button, enter in the pinball serial number and press Save. Next, download the launcher. Go to www.mypinball.com and click on the "Downloads" button. Click on "Downloads for iOS and Android" and download the "Pinball HD Collection launcher". Now, download the app from the Play Store or from the Apple App Store. Once you have installed the app, start it. Press the "Pinball Arcade" button, enter in the pinball serial number and press Save. Note: If you are not logging in to your My Pinball account, you will not be able to purchase any DLC after the first one you have been given on launch. UPDATE: I figured out how to get around this. So, go to and download the "Ultimate Pinball HD Collector's Edition" pack. Once it is installed, just log in to your My Pinball account, get the pinball serial number from the physical game card (found on the bottom of the game) and enter in that pinball serial number on pinballhd.com. It will allow you to download all the DLC packs for a limited time. Once that time is up, you will have to go through the steps above again. Note that you can only get 82157476af
